

ITALY

These lists include services within Italy. There are over thirty offshore islands served by a variety of ships and, in addition, Italy has a large number of hydrofoils and other fast craft. Some Italian ships carry just a few cars and these have been marked with a small "c" to distinguish them from car ferries. Italian ships' names are not usually followed by Roman numbers (I, II, III), but instead use words (PRIMO, SECONDO, TERZO); this may cause confusion since names may be abbreviated in advertisements. Timetables of local services are often included in provincial Italian daily newspapers, such as 'Il Mattino' for the area around Napoli, 'Giornale di Sicilia' for Sicily, 'Gazzetta del Sud' for Straits of Messina or 'La Nuova' for Northern Sardinia, all of which give useful information. A key to this list is on page 28.
