

GREECE

These lists include services within Greece. Fares on regular services are regulated by the government, though tickets issued by one company cannot be used on another firm's ship. Higher fares are charged for hydrofoils and other fast craft. Some ships and fast ferries have superior reserved seats at higher fares.

Departures from major ports are co-ordinated by the port police who can be contacted for information; ticket agents usually only supply details of the ships they represent. There is no reliable source of information on schedules which often change with little advance notice. Some Greek daily papers include ferry timetables; the most comprehensive are in the business paper 'H NAYTEMPIOIKH' ("I Naftemporiki"). The daily 'INTERNATIONAL NEW YORK TIMES' is sold in Greece with an English edition of the Greek paper 'KATHIMERINI' which lists the day's departures from Pireas and Rafina.

Greek ships always bear their name on the stern in the Greek alphabet, while larger ships usually have the name in the Roman alphabet on the bows. Names can be transliterated in various ways, so that the FESTOS PALACE for instance may be advertised as the PHAESTOS PALACE. Several ships' names include "Ayios" (meaning "Saint") which may be rendered as "AGIOS", "AGHIOS" or "AG."

A key to this list is on page 30.

Within each section, operators are listed in alphabetic order. For each operator, the following information is given:

Title - This is the name by which the firm is usually identified and is not necessarily the full legal name or the registered owner of a vessel. A glossary of Greek words used in company names is below.

Name of vessel - If the vessel's name has changed since the 2016 'Trip Out' guides, the previous name is given; other former names are not listed.

Nationality of vessel - All vessels listed are of Greek registry unless stated otherwise. The following codes are used:

AL - Albania,

TG - Togo.

Particulars of vessel - Year of completion, "gt" or gross tonnage, overall length in metres, and maximum passenger capacity.

Type of vessel - the following codes are used:

C - car ferry,

H - hydrofoil,

m - catamaran or trimaran,

> - high speed craft,

▲ - auxiliary sailing vessel,

g - gas turbine powered.

(All other vessels have diesel engines).

Services - Dates are inclusive: thus, "May - Aug" means from the beginning of May to the end of August.

Unless stated otherwise, cruises and excursions run in summer only, but charter trips are available all year.
